

Resources for Lead Information

HUD

Office of Healthy Homes & Lead Hazard Control 202 755-1785
Information Website..... www.hud.gov/offices/lead
Lead Paint Compliance Assistance Center 866 483-1012
Lead Professionals Listing (Lead Inspectors & Risk Assessors) www.leadlisting.org
1012/1013 Question Hotline202 755-1785, ext. 104
HUD Form # 52580-A, Section 8 Inspection Form (inspection check-list):
<http://www.hud.gov/offices/adm/handbksforms/handbooks2cfm#forms>, click on
FORMS link to HUDCLIPS

1995 HUD Guidelines (LBP): Contact HUD-USER at 1-800-245-2691

The HUD Guidelines is considered one of the best information sources for lead paint testing, risk assessment and abatement practices. Comprising 700 pages, the guidelines is a complete document on the current “state-of-the-art” thinking regarding Lead-based paint.

EPA

Informational Websites WWW.EPA.GOV/LEAD
WWW.EPA.GOV/OPPTINTR/LEAD
RCRA (Waste Disposal) Information Line800 590-6522
TSCA Information Line 202 554-1404
Email information request hotlineHotline.lead@epamail.epa.gov

OSHA

Information Website WWW.OSHA.GOV

Kansas Department of Health & Environment

Information line 888 291-2821 or 785 368-7154
Information Website WWW.KDHE.STATE.KS.US/LEAD

Missouri Department of Health & Senior Services

Information line 888 837-0927 or 573 751-6400

National Lead Information Center

Provided Lead-Safe Housing publications, free of charge for up to 5 copies. 800 424-Lead (5323)

Free Lead-Safe Work Practices Training

National Paint & Coating Assn. Website: www.lead safetraining.org
Must register in advance online or by phone at : Toll Free 866 232-5419